Re: Koninklijke Philips Electronics N.V./DVD+RW, CD-R and CD-RW Properties

Dear Sir or Madam:

This letter is written to you and your company on behalf of Koninklijke Philips Electronics N.V. ("Philips"). Philips is a pioneer of optical recording technologies and products and is the owner of trademarks, patents, and other proprietary rights in and to such technologies and products (hereinafter the "Philips Properties"). The Philips Properties include, but are not limited to, trademark rights in and to the world famous Compact Disc Recordable (U.S. Reg. No. 2,712,766) (also known as "CD-R"), Compact Disc ReWritable (U.S. Reg. No. 2,718,596) (also known as "CD-RW"), and DVD+ReWritable (U.S. Reg. No. 2,610,036) (also known as "DVD+RW") marks, among others (hereinafter, collectively referred to as the "Logos"). Depictions of the Logos are enclosed with this letter.

Because of the foregoing rights, no one is authorized to manufacture, advertise, offer for sale or sell any products or engage in any conduct utilizing any of the Philips Properties, including the Logos, without the express written permission of Philips. Philips operates a number of licensing programs whereby certain trademark and patent rights are made available to manufacturers of the relevant technology under reasonable and non-discriminatory conditions. In order to affix or use any of Philips' Logos, an agreement must be obtained from Philips.

Notwithstanding this, it has come to our attention that you and your company are manufacturing, importing, advertising, distributing, offering for sale and/or selling, unauthorized merchandise (hereinafter referred to as "Counterfeit Products") including, but not limited to, CD-R, CD-RW and/or DVD+RW drives and/or recorders bearing Philips' Logos without Philips' written consent. It is also our understanding that you and your company will attend the 2006 International Consumer Electronics Show in Las Vegas, Nevada, USA ("CES"), and that your company intends to exhibit and offer for sale the Counterfeit Product at CES. Your unauthorized use of the Logos constitutes trademark infringement and unfair competition in that purchasers of your Counterfeit Products in question will erroneously believe that such merchandise is authorized by Philips. In addition, your Counterfeit Products dilute the distinctiveness of the Philips Properties and Logos by trading upon the goodwill and reputation which the public associates with the Philips Properties and Logos. Further, your acts of unfair competition substantially interfere with the merchandising and licensing of the Philips Properties and with the businesses of Philips and its licensees who are authorized to use the Philips Properties.

Moreover, the violators of such rights face, among other things, seizure of counterfeit products, injunctions, damages (which may be trebled), attorneys' fees, and, in appropriate circumstances, a criminal arrest. The Trademark Counterfeiting Act of 1984 specifically prohibits the distribution, offering for sale and sale of counterfeit merchandise and makes such activity punishable by fine of up to $5,000,000 and a possible prison term of 10 years. 18 U.S.C. § 2320.

On behalf of Philips, we demand that you and each and every person or company affiliated with you:

- (1) Immediately and permanently discontinue the importation, manufacture, advertising, distribution, sale and offering for sale of all of your Counterfeit Products;
- (2) Refrain from exhibiting and/or offering for sale your Counterfeit Product, or conducting any business with respect to your Counterfeit Products, at the CES;
- (3) Immediately and voluntarily surrender to our firm your entire inventory of such Counterfeit Products on hand as of this date, including all advertising material, brochures, and the such that bear the Logos; and
- (4) Advise us in writing of your compliance with the foregoing and furnish us with the following information within five (5) days:
 - (a) A list describing each item manufactured, advertised, distributed, sold, and/or offered for sale by you which utilizes any of the Philips Properties;
 - (b) Any catalogs, promotional brochures or advertisements for any of the items listed in response to paragraph (a) above;
 - (c) The date you began to manufacture, advertise, distribute, sell and/or offer for sale each of the above-mentioned items;
 - (d) The number of each item listed pursuant to paragraph (a) above which you manufactured, advertised, distributed, sold and/or offered for sale; and
 - (e) The amount of unfulfilled orders you have received for the manufacture, distribution, or sale of each item listed in response to paragraph (a) above.

Philips considers your conduct to constitute a serious violation of its rights and to be very damaging to its businesses and reputations. We have been instructed to pursue this matter fully and seek all available remedies and the maximum allowable damages against you.

Please confirm that you have ceased to engage in the infringing conduct described above by signing this letter in the space provided below. Philips has authorized us to pursue further legal action against you and seek the relief to which it is entitled including a seizure of counterfeit products, injunction, damages (which may be trebled), and attorneys' fees unless we receive a comprehensive response from you on or before the close of business on December 16, 2005.

Nothing in this letter shall be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of any right or remedy possessed by Philips or any other affected party, all of which are expressly reserved.

Very truly yours,

Jeffrey K. Joyner, of

Re: Koninklijke Philips Electronics N.V./DVD+RW, CD-R and CD-RW Properties

Dear Sir or Madam:

This letter is written to you and your company on behalf of Koninklijke Philips Electronics N.V. ("Philips"). Philips is a pioneer of optical recording technologies and products and is the owner of trademarks, patents, and other proprietary rights in and to such technologies and products (hereinafter the "Philips Properties"). The Philips Properties include, but are not limited to, trademark rights in and to the world famous Compact Disc Recordable (U.S. Reg. No. 2,712,766) (also known as "CD-R"), Compact Disc ReWritable (U.S. Reg. No. 2,718,596) (also known as "CD-RW"), and DVD+ReWritable (U.S. Reg. No. 2,610,036) (also known as "DVD+RW") marks, among others (hereinafter, collectively referred to as the "Logos"). Depictions of the Logos are enclosed with this letter.

Because of the foregoing rights, no one is authorized to manufacture, advertise, offer for sale or sell any products or engage in any conduct utilizing any of the Philips Properties, including the Logos, without the express written permission of Philips. Philips operates a number of licensing programs whereby certain trademark and patent rights are made available to manufacturers of the relevant technology under reasonable and non-discriminatory conditions. In order to affix or use any of Philips' Logos, an agreement must be obtained from Philips.

Notwithstanding this, it has come to our attention that you and your company are manufacturing, importing, advertising, distributing, offering for sale and/or selling, unauthorized merchandise (hereinafter referred to as "Counterfeit Products") including, but not limited to, CD-R, CD-RW and/or DVD+RW drives and/or recorders bearing Philips' Logos without Philips' written consent. It is also our understanding that you and your company will attend the 2006 International Consumer Electronics Show in Las Vegas, Nevada, USA ("CES"), and that your company intends to exhibit and offer for sale the Counterfeit Product at CES. Your unauthorized use of the Logos constitutes trademark infringement and unfair competition in that purchasers of your Counterfeit Products in question will erroneously believe that such merchandise is authorized by Philips. In addition, your Counterfeit Products dilute the distinctiveness of the Philips Properties and Logos by trading upon the goodwill and reputation which the public associates with the Philips Properties and Logos. Further, your acts of unfair competition substantially interfere with the merchandising and licensing of the Philips Properties and with the businesses of Philips and its licensees who are authorized to use the Philips Properties.

Moreover, the violators of such rights face, among other things, seizure of counterfeit products, injunctions, damages (which may be trebled), attorneys' fees, and, in appropriate circumstances, a criminal arrest. The Trademark Counterfeiting Act of 1984 specifically prohibits the distribution, offering for sale and sale of counterfeit merchandise and makes such activity punishable by fine of up to $5,000,000 and a possible prison term of 10 years. 18 U.S.C. § 2320.

On behalf of Philips, we demand that you and each and every person or company affiliated with you:

- (1) Immediately and permanently discontinue the importation, manufacture, advertising, distribution, sale and offering for sale of all of your Counterfeit Products;
- (2) Refrain from exhibiting and/or offering for sale your Counterfeit Product, or conducting any business with respect to your Counterfeit Products, at the CES;
- (3) Immediately and voluntarily surrender to our firm your entire inventory of such Counterfeit Products on hand as of this date, including all advertising material, brochures, and the such that bear the Logos; and
- (4) Advise us in writing of your compliance with the foregoing and furnish us with the following information within five (5) days:
 - (a) A list describing each item manufactured, advertised, distributed, sold, and/or offered for sale by you which utilizes any of the Philips Properties;
 - (b) Any catalogs, promotional brochures or advertisements for any of the items listed in response to paragraph (a) above;
 - (c) The date you began to manufacture, advertise, distribute, sell and/or offer for sale each of the above-mentioned items;
 - (d) The number of each item listed pursuant to paragraph (a) above which you manufactured, advertised, distributed, sold and/or offered for sale; and
 - (e) The amount of unfulfilled orders you have received for the manufacture, distribution, or sale of each item listed in response to paragraph (a) above.

Philips considers your conduct to constitute a serious violation of its rights and to be very damaging to its businesses and reputations. We have been instructed to pursue this matter fully and seek all available remedies and the maximum allowable damages against you.

Please confirm that you have ceased to engage in the infringing conduct described above by signing this letter in the space provided below. Philips has authorized us to pursue further legal action against you and seek the relief to which it is entitled including a seizure of counterfeit products, injunction, damages (which may be trebled), and attorneys' fees unless we receive a comprehensive response from you on or before the close of business on December 16, 2005.

Nothing in this letter shall be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of any right or remedy possessed by Philips or any other affected party, all of which are expressly reserved.

Re: Koninklijke Philips Electronics N.V./DVD+RW, CD-R and CD-RW Properties

Dear Sir or Madam:

This letter is written to you and your company on behalf of Koninklijke Philips Electronics N.V. ("Philips"). Philips is a pioneer of optical recording technologies and products and is the owner of trademarks, patents, and other proprietary rights in and to such technologies and products (hereinafter the "Philips Properties"). The Philips Properties include, but are not limited to, trademark rights in and to the world famous Compact Disc Recordable (U.S. Reg. Re: Koninklijke Philips Electronics N.V./DVD+RW, CD-R and CD-RW Properties

Dear Sir or Madam:

This letter is written to you and your company on behalf of Koninklijke Philips Electronics N.V. ("Philips"). Philips is a pioneer of optical recording technologies and products and is the owner of trademarks, patents, and other proprietary rights in and to such technologies and products (hereinafter the "Philips Properties"). The Philips Properties include, but are not limited to, trademark rights in and to the world famous Compact Disc Recordable (U.S. Reg. No. 2,712,766) (also known as "CD-R"), Compact Disc ReWritable (U.S. Reg. No. 2,718,596) (also known as "CD-RW"), and DVD+ReWritable (U.S. Reg. No. 2,610,036) (also known as "DVD+RW") marks, among others (hereinafter, collectively referred to as the "Logos"). Depictions of the Logos are enclosed with this letter.

Because of the foregoing rights, no one is authorized to manufacture, advertise, offer for sale or sell any products or engage in any conduct utilizing any of the Philips Properties, including the Logos, without the express written permission of Philips. Philips operates a number of licensing programs whereby certain trademark and patent rights are made available to manufacturers of the relevant technology under reasonable and non-discriminatory conditions. In order to affix or use any of Philips' Logos, an agreement must be obtained from Philips.

Notwithstanding this, it has come to our attention that you and your company are manufacturing, importing, advertising, distributing, offering for sale and/or selling, unauthorized merchandise (hereinafter referred to as "Counterfeit Products") including, but not limited to, CD-R, CD-RW and/or DVD+RW drives and/or recorders bearing Philips' Logos without Philips' written consent. It is also our understanding that you and your company will attend the 2006 International Consumer Electronics Show in Las Vegas, Nevada, USA ("CES"), and that your company intends to exhibit and offer for sale the Counterfeit Product at CES. Your unauthorized use of the Logos constitutes trademark infringement and unfair competition in that purchasers of your Counterfeit Products in question will erroneously believe that such merchandise is authorized by Philips. In addition, your Counterfeit Products dilute the distinctiveness of the Philips Properties and Logos by trading upon the goodwill and reputation which the public associates with the Philips Properties and Logos. Further, your acts of unfair competition substantially interfere with the merchandising and licensing of the Philips Properties and with the businesses of Philips and its licensees who are authorized to use the Philips Properties.

Moreover, the violators of such rights face, among other things, seizure of counterfeit products, injunctions, damages (which may be trebled), attorneys' fees, and, in appropriate circumstances, a criminal arrest. The Trademark Counterfeiting Act of 1984 specifically prohibits the distribution, offering for sale and sale of counterfeit merchandise and makes such activity punishable by fine of up to $5,000,000 and a possible prison term of 10 years. 18 U.S.C. § 2320.

On behalf of Philips, we demand that you and each and every person or company affiliated with you:

- (1) Immediately and permanently discontinue the importation, manufacture, advertising, distribution, sale and offering for sale of all of your Counterfeit Products;
- (2) Refrain from exhibiting and/or offering for sale your Counterfeit Product, or conducting any business with respect to your Counterfeit Products, at the CES;
- (3) Immediately and voluntarily surrender to our firm your entire inventory of such Counterfeit Products on hand as of this date, including all advertising material, brochures, and the such that bear the Logos; and
- (4) Advise us in writing of your compliance with the foregoing and furnish us with the following information within five (5) days:
 - (a) A list describing each item manufactured, advertised, distributed, sold, and/or offered for sale by you which utilizes any of the Philips Properties;
 - (b) Any catalogs, promotional brochures or advertisements for any of the items listed in response to paragraph (a) above;
 - (c) The date you began to manufacture, advertise, distribute, sell and/or offer for sale each of the above-mentioned items;
 - (d) The number of each item listed pursuant to paragraph (a) above which you manufactured, advertised, distributed, sold and/or offered for sale; and
 - (e) The amount of unfulfilled orders you have received for the manufacture, distribution, or sale of each item listed in response to paragraph (a) above.

Philips considers your conduct to constitute a serious violation of its rights and to be very damaging to its businesses and reputations. We have been instructed to pursue this matter fully and seek all available remedies and the maximum allowable damages against you.

Please confirm that you have ceased to engage in the infringing conduct described above by signing this letter in the space provided below. Philips has authorized us to pursue further legal action against you and seek the relief to which it is entitled including a seizure of counterfeit products, injunction, damages (which may be trebled), and attorneys' fees unless we receive a comprehensive response from you on or before the close of business on December 16, 2005.

Nothing in this letter shall be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of any right or remedy possessed by Philips or any other affected party, all of which are expressly reserved.
